TO THE LADIES.

INTELLECTUAL DEVELOPEMENTS AND PERSONAL BEAUTY CONSIDERED IN CONNECTION WITH DOCT. FELIX GOURAUD'S POUDRES SUBTILES.

The sculptor whose study is to imitate the exquisite workmanship of nature, pourtrays in his model of the human form a broad and elevated forehead. This developement is not only consonant with but sometimes necessary to the possession of a high order of mental faculty. If a fine forehead is a mark of intellect it is no less an essential element of personal beauty, and it is of importance to those, and there are many such possessed of this prominent feature though obscured by the encroachments of a too luxurious growth of hair to remove that portion of an excrescence which tends in their case only to deform. This can be done safely speedily effectually, and if used in accordance with directions without the least inconvenience by Dr Felix Gouraud's Depilatory Powders. The fuzze of the lip when annoying, or the short hair on the back of a ladies' neck, when too apparent the hair of a mole, or the beard, when hig upon the cheek may all be removed and eventually the roots destroyed, by the use of this preparation.

Manufactured by Dr Felix Gouraud 67, Walker street one door from Broadway, N York. $1 00 per bottle.

GOURAUD'S EAU DE BEAUTE, OR TRUE WATER OF BEAUTY.

Possessing Freckles, Tan Pimples, Blotches, Sores, Burns and all Cutaneous Eruptions realizing delicate white hands, neck and arms and effecting a healthy juvenile appearance. ☞ $1,00 per bottle.

GOURAUD'S VEGETABLE ROUGE!

Composed materially from flowers and simples imparts a delicate carnation tinge to the cheek immovable by perspiration or rubbing with a handkerchief or a linen cloth. ☞ 50 cents per bottle.

To be had in Bangor of the sole appointed agents, Messrs. WHITTIER & GUILD, Druggists.

Adams's Venus Water.

THE true Remedy! the Sovereign Restorative!! the grand producer!!! The subscriber informs the public that after FOURTEEN YEARS of study, ten of which have been years of immense labor and difficulty, he has discovered the only true remedy against the loss, the sovereign restorative in case of a deficiency and the grand producer of that most beautiful ornament of "the human form divine" THE HAIR!

That it may be known that this Venus Water is an invaluable article, I will state that in the first years of my labors upon it its application to the head for two consecutive seasons was necessary in order to establish a good growth of hair, but now only one season is required, so successful have been my improvements upon it! And I have the proud satisfaction of knowing that in the City of Bangor alone three hundred and forty heads which were once bald can by the heavy growth of hair upon them bear witness to the wonderful effects which this Venus Water has produced within eighteen months!

Public Reading Room.

Several attempts to maintain a public Reading Room in this city have failed. The proprietors of the present room had many strong assurances given them, that a room well supplied with good papers, should be sustained, but we regret to learn that these promises have not been fulfilled, although none complain of the quantity or quality of the papers furnished.

The convenience to business men, and the credit of the city resulting from a good public reading room are well known. All who are interested in Bangor being a comfortable place of resort for business or pleasure should help sustain such an enterprise, especially as strangers have a free admission.

We learn that the proprietors of the present well furnished Reading Room are in doubt as to the propriety of continuing it for the convenience of the many at their private cost. Unless they have greater encouragement, the room will be closed.

Look at Home.

If people would but establish it as a fixed rule, when any article necessary or convenient, is to be purchased, first to look at home, in their own town and shops, for what is required, and determine to buy there, if a suitable article can be had, and not to send abroad except for articles not to be had at home, they would touch a main spring of domestic prosperity.

And by so doing they would not only give immediate aid and encouragement to the mechanic employed but indirectly, though surely, promote their own personal prosperity. And next in course of improvement in a town to the support of those mechanics which it has, people should look at home to see what manufactures could be introduced to advantage, and give them suitable encouragement.

While our lumbering business is prosperous, we should be desirous to introduce other manufactures, so that when the former shall begin to fail, we may rely upon the latter.

We should look at home, too, in purchasing of regular dealers in our city or town, instead of encouraging travelling traders, who pay no taxes and are irresponsible and unknown. No peddling traders in fancy goods, jewelry, or the like, should be encouraged. The real itinerant peddlers, who pick up the fragments and turn them to a useful end, should be encouraged in fair trading. We cannot stop to enumerate all the matters which require us to look at home, but can assure our readers that it is a very profitable business if well followed.

The Rainer Family.

These charming singers having made a reinforcement of two members to their family, closed their entertainments in this city by a Farewell Concert last evening. The evenness and harmony of their singing, is truly delightful and the charm is increased by the neatness and effect of their national costume. The Rainers are always welcomed and sustained in our city by full houses, which, in truth, they richly deserve.

We learn they left in the boat this morning for Portland where they will give a series of musical entertainments to delight the lovers of sweet sounds in that city, of highly cultivated musical talent.

Demand for Lumber.

Our lumber dealers are hard pushed in the way of orders for lumber. The late storm that gave such abundance of rain, and swelled the streams in other parts of New England, gave very little rain to this section of Maine. This should be borne in mind by those who have ordered lumber, or they may suppose themselves neglected. The fact is, that at present, many of our lumber dealers are hard at work the hardest work waiting for rain, to move the mills, many of which have been idle since August.

☞ A real cute pen holder and wafer stand of cast iron, and very cheap, may be found at the Bookstore of E F DUREN. He has placed one of them upon our table, and it does the business in good shape.

The Bankrupt Law.

Of all the legislation of the General Government during the last forty years, excepting, perhaps, the forgiving of the Land Debt twenty odd years ago, the most beneficent in its direct operation upon individuals, is the act to establish a Uniform System of Bankruptcy. The very odor of it, if we may be allowed the figure, has bade the lame and halt to walk erect, and has made whole the broken hearted. It does not go into effect until February next, and yet its blessed influence began to be felt from the moment it became a law. It has not literally opened the prison doors, but it has carried the sense of freedom and a renewed existence into the interior of thousands of respectable families, that seemed, until the light of that act beamed upon them, to be doomed to a hopeless and endless penury. Who, that has a heart to feel, but must rejoice in the spectacle of so great a happiness, brought about by the moral influence of a benign action, producing fruit in anticipation of its legal operation! National Intelligencer

By a private letter from Washington to a Navy officer in this city, says the Philadelphia Chronicle of Friday, received on Thursday evening, we learn that orders have been issued from the Navy Department to fit out the steam frigates Mississippi at our Navy Yard, and the Missouri at New York, with all possible despatch, and also to prepare several of the vessels intended for the Home Squadron for sea service at once. The Mississippi, we are told, can be fitted in a month ready to proceed to sea with the exception of the large iron shaft which is being manufactured in the place of one lost from a vessel in the East river at New York about two months since. The Missouri will require twice that length of time to complete her. These orders look like doing business in earnest.

We have seldom seen so large a fleet of splendid ships idle and made fast at our wharves as at present, and ships too of the largest class. One of the finest sights strangers can have is to pass along South street, by the side of the forest of shipping, for among them may be seen some of the finest merchant ships that can be found in the world. Freights have ranged so very low for years past that vessels of the largest capacity have been built, so as to make the investment profitable. Profitable or unprofitable freights depend greatly on the crop of cotton; if it be large, there is full employment for vessels at liberal rates, but if the crop is small, there is always a surplus of vessels, and consequently a great reduction in the rate. [N Y paper.

The Steamer Telegraph, of the "Citizens' Line," is off for another route. She left here last week, and the Portland has clear sailing again. Her fare was put up to two dollars again, last night, a price no one can with good reason complain of. Portland Advertiser, Oct 12th

The People of the United States have another rather remarkable trait of character, and which is called into bold relief whenever the subject of conversation is collision with Great Britain, and that is, unbounded confidence, the [illegible] and diffidence in the physical strength of their country. The People of Great Britain, on the other hand, if we may judge from much we hear, labor under the the conviction that justice and physical force are both on their side.

Now if we consult that prophet who predicts what is to come from the past, he will tell us at once that of all the great empires of the earth now in existence, the one most exposed to sudden, unexpected, and irrecoverable reverses, is this same Great Britain. Indeed, it would be to reject the warnings of history to expect long duration to an empire whose parts are so widely spread, detached, and not only heterogeneous, but violently adverse in material. Could I render my voice heard by two great parties, it would be exerted to warn both of the danger of rushing into mutual conflict. But, as to ultimate consequence, I should certainly point out Indostan, Canada, and many other distant points of danger to Great Britain, not forgetting Ireland, and her own far from contented or satisfied population. In brief, much as the writer hereof deprecates war and its consequences there is no conviction on his mind more strong than that, physically considered, the United States would come out of the struggle with increased power power, however, far indeed from desirable.

But the natural course of human passion will, in this, as well as all other cases, go onwards, and new examples will be given to show the futility of experience. Great prosperities and great reverses are both very expensive, but nations seldom count cost. Who dared to warn CHARLES, Duke of Burgundy. The blood stained fields of Granson and Morat, the thousands of his subjects slain, could not warn him. Who dared to have told GEORGE III, and his Ministry, that their infatuated measures would terminate in an EMPIRE OF THE WEST? Who would now dare to tell their successors, to their faces, the almost sure consequence of changing a peaceful to a warlike People? Who would have told NAPOLEON, when on the Vistula, with his until then invincible legions, that the Cossacks would encamp in Paris, and the Emperors and Kings of the North sleep in his palace? ALPHA

Beautiful Extract.

The following is from the Address of Mr Peabody at the Consecration of the Springfield Cemetery, on the 5th September.

When I saw this great audience just now, winding up through the glades of the Cemetery to take their places on this ground, I was deeply affected with the thought, how soon we shall take our places in the dust below. With this deep thought upon our minds with these hills and vallies around us in presence of these venerable trees and sparkling waters with the green earth beneath, and God's own bright sky above us. I need not labor to bring you to solemnity for I doubt not that a voice is now saying in every heart, 'the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.'

Reflect how many tenants will soon be here, to claim their freehold in the dust below. One fair and gentle child has already come a fitting herald to take possession in the name of all the dead. Here he had laid himself down on a colder pillow than a mother's breast. Many such will soon be here morning stars quenched in the brightness of their rising before they have known the stains and sorrows of life below. Children, in tender years will follow their parents to this place, the domestic circle will be fearfully broken, and thenceforth the wide world will be their home. The husband will follow the wife, the light and joy of the desolated home, and the wife, the husband on whose strong arm she had hoped to lean on through all her days. The young sinking under the slow torture of wasting disease, will flee away and be at rest in this holy ground, the aged, after years of labor and sorrow, will depart to this place in peace. The pale marbles will rise every where around us, telling of the dead, sometimes what they were, but still oftener what they ought to have been.

Disgracing the Hod.

"What are you going to give to-day?" asked a dispenser of other peoples' charity, yesterday to a ragged hod-carrier.

"Is it myself ye ask, then? By the powers, I've more nor I can do these times to get bread for my little ones so by that token an' more ov em if ye want, ye can jis purceive I've nothing to give the poor, be raison that I'm poor mesilf."

"But," said the almoner, "We don't want money from poor people. We take anything old clothes, cold victuals or any other covering for the poor wretches."

"May be ye'd take my ould tattered jacket then lying on the morthar bed be the guther."

"Oh yes," said the man.

"An' what for, sure?"

"Because I feel an interest in you. I want to see you charitable, for scripture says, 'whoso giveth to the poor, lendeth to the Lord.'"

"Ah, it's there ye are then! I thot so. When ye catch me lending a ragged jacket to the Lord, I'll just be disgracing the hod. Oh, ye spalpeen."

'YANKEES.' Some of the Yankees who go 'out West,' thinking they are to find a perfect El Dorado, do not make out so well after all. One of them who recently returned to his native town, was interrogated as follows, by an old friend and school fellow.

'Well Zeph, how have you made out by your journey?'

'How have I made out?'

'Yes.'

'Why, I've made out dreadful well. I've made out to got hum agin, and that's what I call doin a plaguy good business considerin every thing.'

USE OF TOBACCO. 'It is,' says James I, 'a custome loathsome to the eye, hatefull to the nose, harmfull to the braine, dangerous to the lungs, and in the black stinking fume thereof nearest resembling the horrible stygian smoke of the pit that is bottomless.'

The Sharp Nosed Gentleman.

The Little Rock, Ark, Gazette states, that during the last struggle in the last Presidential canvass, a young man, whose face nature had formed a little on the pick axe style, was one public day surrounded by a number of hearers, attentively listening to his efforts in electioneering, amongst whom was a plain old farmer, who was afflicted with a stammering, who thus accosted the aforesaid gentleman.

"T tell me, my friend, did-didn't you come from a rich na-ha-borhood?"

"Yes, the people are most all well provided for. Why do you ask the question?"

"Because it is said, that the rich grind the faces of the poor, and I see they have g-got yours down to a p-p-pint."

The sharp nosed gentlemen left.

We credit men of standing and station with a thousand good qualities which have never been tested, and accord them a reputation for virtues which have never been tried. If you want to find pure gold, go to the crucible, and if desirous of discovering honest men, virtuous women, high minded benevolence, and the capability to endure the fate of this world, go to the huts, cabins and one-storied houses of the unpretending poor. Verily theirs is the "undertow" of life's river, and manfully do they stem it!

☞ The Chicago Democrat tells about a member of the Wisconsin Legislature, who had rather an indistinct idea of the classical allusion of Scylla and Charybdis, who thus addressed the Speaker.

"The gentleman asks me to accept of his amendment and thereby destroy the whole meaning to my resolution, and carry me away in the opposite extreme. I cannot consent to nothing of the kind and I can assure every member of this House that my character is vastly mistaken if any one thinks to make me thus jump from Sally to Katty Bogus."

A Yankee boy had a whole Dutch cheese set before him one day by a waggish friend, who however gave him no knife. "This is a funny looking cheese, uncle Joe, but where shall I cut it?" "O," said the grinning friend, "cut it where you like." "Very well," said the Yankee coolly putting it under his arm, "I'll just cut it at home then."

☞ In a country like ours, there is no man, however poor, if aided by industry, economy, and virtue, but may rise from the lowest ranks of society, to the highest. The knowledge of this fact is a blessed incitement to the young, and cheer them on to struggle nobly in the paths which lead to honor and independence, despite the thousand obstacles that oppose their course.

☞ As soon as harvesting is over, broken rails scattered wood, &c should be gathered and put under cover out of the way of the snow and rain. All this matter will make good kindlings and will help to save the wood lot. Hired men who do not commence their day's work by sunrise at this season should make up the time in the evening.

FEMALES. It is computed that $4,000,000 are annually earned by the females in Massachusetts, employed in the various factories and manufactories of straw hats, stocks, and all the various other articles for which New England is noted. The number of females so employed is about 40,000, of whom about 24,000 are in the woolen factories.

EDITOR'S ACCOMMODATIONS. An exchange paper says very truly, that "an editor's room should have chairs enough that is, not more than one occupant's enough that is, only one, and not too many supernumeraries that is, less than one. In short, three things mainly elbow-room, leg-room, and nose-room. [Nantucket Inquirer.

A German paper says, that a new machine for spinning and twisting silk, of which report speaks favorably, has been invented by a person named Henry Gref, a Swiss, from Malhausen, who is now in St Petersburg. It is expected that by this new machine, silk thread may be manufactured by a single operation, and without the application of spindles.

FAILURE. A failure took place last week in the city - liabilities said to be about £20,000. Embarrassment said to be partially caused by the sudden wind up of a St John firm. Considerable assets are expected to make their appearance. [Halifax Times.

The man in whom no trust is placed, that steals a pair of breeches, or brogans is a felon. He in whom unbounded confidence is placed, that steals thousands of dollars, is merely a defaulter. How copious is the English language, in its epithets, and how appropriate their application!

"Your heel must be somewhat better," I think, said a gentleman to a buxom lass who had a hole in the heel of her stocking. "Why so?" she asked. "Because, Miss," replied the gentleman. "I perceive it is getting out."

A Yankee dining with a celebrated English author, made the following observation on beholding a statute of Venus, which he thought particularly well placed. "I say, you've got a tarnation convenient fix for that 'ere stone gal."

A client visited a lawyer, when the following conversation ensued. Client. Did you present your account, and what did he say? Client. I did, your honor, and he told me to go to the devil, and so I came to you.

☞ Messrs Stevens and Catherwood, we learn, sail on Saturday for Central America, to carry out their interesting discoveries, and will be absent five months. They are both wonderfully energetic and indefatigable in their labors lately.

AN ESSENCE PEDLAR KILLED. We learn from a gentleman lately from Boston, that the train of cars upon the Stonington and Boston railroad, ran over and crushed to death a SKUNK.

☞ Claret is extensively manufactured in this country of vinegar, molasses, logwood and alcohol. This drink is much more wholesome, pleasant and economical, when the two latter ingredients are omitted.

A cabinet maker, having made a table for a customer who did not come after it for several years, thus addressed him, when, at last, he applied for it. 'Sir, you are the most US COME FOR TABLE man I was ever acquainted with.'

What an old brute the "man in the moon" must be! We saw a woman last evening so perfectly "moon struck," that she didn't know her uncle's grandfather from a bunch of nail rods.

'I am so tired,' said the big wheel to the little one. "Who spoke?" said the little wheel to the cart. "Not me. I always hold my tongue," said the cart, turning round the corner.

The Poet of the Poor.

Ebenezer Elliot, a poor iron dealer of Sheffield, sprung from the lowest ranks, is astonishing the world, by strains worthy of a Burns. The following comparison of the outward and visible glories of creation, with the prospects which are opening on Society from the light of knowledge is extracted from one of his recent productions.

God said, "let there be light!"
Grim darkness felt his might,
And fled away;
Then startled seas and mountains cold,
Shone forth all bright in blue and gold,
And cried, 'Tis day, 'tis day!'

"Hail holy light!" exclaimed
The thunderous cloud that flamed
O'er daisies white;
And lo! the rose, in crimson dress'd
Leaned sweetly o'er the lily's breast,
And blushing murmur'd "Light!"

Then was the sky lark born,
Then rose the embattled corn
Then floods of praise
Flowed o'er the sunny hills of noon
And then, in stillest night, the moon
Poured forth her pensive lays,
Lo! heaven's bright bow is glad!
Lo! trees and flowers all clad
In glory, bloom.

And shall the immortal sons of God
Be senseless as the untrodden clod,
And darker than the tomb?
No by the MIND of man!
By the swart artizan!
By God, our sire!
Our souls have holy light within,
And every form of grief and sin
Shall see and feel its fire.

By earth and hell, and heaven,
The shroud of souls is riven!
Mind, mind alone
Is light and hope, and life, and power
Earth's deepest night from this blessed hour
The night of mind is gone!

By This Morning's Mail.

From Central America.

The brig Francis, Capt Roberts, arrived at New York from San Juan, brings intelligence from that place to the 3rd ult. Capt Roberts states, that a few days previous to his having left that place the British sloop of war Tweed, Lieut Douglass, arrived there, having on board the Musqueto King, and ordered the Musqueto flag to be hoisted. The people were also ordered to be prepared to leave by the 1st of March. They also made prisoner of the Commandant of San Juan, and took him to Balize, to be tried for piracy.

It is reported by Capt Roberts, that the Americans, at San Juan, are almost daily insulted, and what is still worse, a high-handed outrage had been committed on the brig Galen, of N York.

It is supposed that the English are making a strong interest in that quarter.

From the Baltimore American

Maryland Election.

We have now returns from every county in the State most of them official or authentic, and a few reported. It will be seen that the Hon Francis Thomas is the Governor elect of Maryland, by a majority of 505.

The House of Delegates will consist of 36 W and 42 Opp members not including the tie in Queen Ann's.

The Whig majority in the Senate still secures a Whig majority on joint ballot.

GEORGIA ELECTION. The Election for Governor and members of the State Legislature took place on Monday, the 4th inst. The Whig candidate for Governor was WILLIAM C DAWSON. The vote in sixteen counties gives him a majority of 716 over his opponent, Mr MCDONALD.

The Baltimore Patriot, whose election computations have been remarkable for accuracy, says "There can be no doubt, from its returns, that McDonald, (L F) is re-elected Governer, and that the Legislature, in both branches, will be Loco Foco."

LATE FROM FLORIDA. The Savannah Republican of the 7th inst acknowledges the receipt of the following intelligence from the seat of war in Florida. On 26th ult 8 miles from Cary's Ferry, a party of Indians killed Mr Jonathan Thigpin and a Mr Barber, and on the 29th, near Black Creek, Messrs Bleach and Penner were fired on, the former was killed and the latter escaped. On the 30th, about 8 miles from Fort Crane, two brothers named Hallard were killed.

The express rider due at Pilatka on Sunday night had not arrived when the Newburn left at 5 P M on Monday, and it was feared that he had also been killed.

☞ The Yellow Fever continues its terrible ravages at New-Orleans. There were fifty-one deaths on the 29th forty one of them from the epidemic. Over one third of those attacked are cut down by it. The New Orleans Bee of the 1st inst says, by passengers on the Princess, says the Natchez Courier, we are sorry to learn that several of the officers of the steamboats Pre-Emption and Eliza had died of yellow fever, on their last trip up.

It is said that after "Colonel" Grogan was brought into the United States he returned voluntarily into Canada, but as the people declined arresting him, he has failed to become a "LION."

CONSUMPTION AND LIVER COMPLAINT.

BALSOM OF LIVERWORT

DR TAYLOR'S BALSOM of LIVERWORT has been used successfully for eight years in the Cure of these Diseases ☞Remember the original and genuine is made ONLY at 375 Bowery, New York, ALL others are spurious and unauthorized

CONSUMPTION & LIVER COMPLAINT

As a general remedy for these diseases, I am fully satisfied from long experience, there is no medicine equal to Dr. Taylor's Balsom of Liverwort Being purely vegetable it can be used with the utmost safety by all persons in every condition It cleanses the lungs by expectoration relieves difficult breathing and heals the chest There can be no question, but this medicine is a certain cure for chronic coughs and colds I have used it for four years in my practice, and always with success

A. F RODGERS M D

☞SPITTING OF BLOOD This disease consists of a discharge of blood often frothy, from the mouth, brought up with walking and coughing, and is usually accompanied with difficulty of breathing, and some pain in the chest Sometimes it is preceded by an oppression at the chest, a dry tickling cough and slight shooting pains This disease is always more or less dangerous The great danger is that these symptoms may terminate in consumption, and immediate remedies can alone save this end But Dr Taylor's Balsom of Liverwort is a sure remedy and to show its unparalleled success, certificates of cures from 421 citizens, and many physicians, will be published in a few days.

☞NERVOUS DISEASES AND WEAKNESS Dr Taylor's Balsom of Liverwort made at 375 Bowery, is assuredly an excellent remedy for these diseases My wife has been more or less ill for ten years She was extremely nervous and at times so weak that she could not attend to her domestic duties By the use of this medicine, her strength is wholly restored, and she is as healthy as I can wish her to be My address is at Dr Taylor's office

CURE OF CONSUMPTION Mrs Marlin a worthy member of my congregation was taken ill some time since with a cold, pain in the breast and some difficulty of breathing, and in a few days thereafter she had a violent cough and violent pain in the sides, which no medicine would relieve She continued in this way for a long time under the medical care of Dr Rea, but finally became consumptive, and was evidently near the end of her earthly sufferings when her brother persuaded her to try Dr Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort. When she commenced this medicine it did not seem to agree with her for a few days but by lessening the dose she found it answered admirably it relieved her cough and her difficulty of breathing instanter, and we had the pleasure of witnessing her rapid recovery to health

CONSUMPTION

DR. ALLEN'S BALSAM of Horehound, Liverwort, and Pleurisy Root, FOR CONSUMPTION AND LIVER COMPLAINT, Colds Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Catarrh, Asthma, Difficulty of Breathing Pain in the Side Palpitation of the Heart Oppression and Soreness of the Chest, Pleurisy Hectic Fever Night Sweats, Difficult and Profuse Expectoration, and all affections of the Chest Lungs and Liver

The Hoarhound Liverwort, and Pleurisy Root have for centuries been celebrated in the cure of diseases of the Lungs and Liver

Dr B D Allen, after a series of experiments, has been able to extract from these medical herbs a balsam, which exerts a most wonderful effect in curing Consumption and Liver Complaint and all other diseases of the Lungs and Chest So great has become the reputation of Dr Allen's Balsam that it is now used in the New York Philadelphia and Baltimore Hospitals and in the private practice of our most eminent medical men

For children laboring under Inflammation of the Lungs, Colds Coughs, Croup, Quinsy, and Sore Throat this Balsam is of great importance The number of deaths among children from these diseases is truly alarming If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves much trouble anxiety and expense let them procure Dr B D Allen's Balsam ; and whenever a child has taken cold has any fever cough, or hoarseness give a teaspoonful of this medicine and repeat it if necessary (even one teaspoonful will often effect an entire cure During the winter of 1839 rising of one thousand families employed this remedy in the city of New York The consequence was, that the number of deaths among children was reduced to less than one half the usual number as may be seen by the city inspector's report of deaths.

In order to give the reader some idea of the efficacy of this Balsam and how extensively it is used we here introduce the monthly report of the cures it performed in the month of May, 1839, as furnished us by the agent, and published in the New York Sun

'Monthly Report of the cures performed by Dr B D Allen's Balsam of Hoarhound, Liverwort and Pleurisy Root during the month of May It has cured and completed the cure of

Consumption in	1200 cases
Liver complaint	102 "
Dyspepsia	196 "
Asthma	91 "
Palpitation of the Heart	87 "
Raising Blood	66 "
Total	1652

'The number of Colds and Coughs cured by this medicine are too numerous to report "

CAUTION Purchase none unless it has a Certificate of "Copywright on wrapper and label and the written signature of B D ALLEN, M D

The following certificates show the high estimation in which Dr Allen's Balsam is held.

BALDNESS.

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR

Is the grandest ornament belonging to the human frame How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance, and prematurely brings on the appearance of old age, which causes many to recoil at being uncovered and sometimes even shun society to avoid the jests and sneers of their acquaintance, the remainder of their lives is consequently spent in retirement In short not even the loss of property fills the generous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair To avert all these unpleasant circumstances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application and a few bottles restores it again It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers, prevents the hair from turning gray, makes it curl beautifully and frees it from scurf Numerous certificates of the first respectibility in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm are shown by the proprietors

Read the following:

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified as may be seen below to the high character of the following gentlemen

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J Oldridge and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventive against the falling off of hair but also a certain restorative

The Indian Vegetable Pills will loosen and carry off by the stomach and bowels those tough phlegmy humors which stop up the air cells of the lungs and are the cause not only of the above distressing complaint but when neglected often terminates in a still more dreadful malady called

It should also be remembered that the India Vegetable Pills are certain cure for

PAIN IN THE SIDE,

Oppression nausea, and sickness, loss of appetite, costiveness a yellow tinge of the skin and eyes, and every other symptom of a torpid or diseased state of the liver, because they purge from the body those impurities which if deposited upon this important organ are the cause of every variety of
